

#Food & Entertainment #Entertainment #Lemon Tree Hotels #Asian Human Capital Award

Lemon Tree Hotels gets 2015 Asian Human Capital Award

The awards committee appreciated Lemon Tree for building effective strategies to mainstream Persons with Disability.

ET Bureau | 05 October 2015, 5:12 PM IST

Share 0 G+ Share 0 in Share Tweet Newsletter

NEW DELHI: Lemon Tree Hotels, was awarded the 2015 Asian Human Capital Award. In a first-of-its-kind in Asia, the Asian Human Capital Award, instituted by Singapore Ministry of Manpower and the Human Capital Leadership Institute, the award honours innovative people practices adopted by Asia-based organisations.

The awards committee appreciated Lemon Tree for building effective strategies to mainstream Persons with Disability.

Patu Keswani, chairman and managing director, The Lemon Tree Hotel Company said, "The inclusivity/diversity philosophy of Lemon Tree Hotels is central to our business model and we have built a culture of main streaming the disadvantaged."

Lemon Tree Hotels is an equal opportunity employer and hires differently-abled staff across its 27 hotels in 16 cities of India. It currently has a strength of 3,000 employees of which 15 per cent are Employees with Disabilities (EWDs) and an additional 4 per cent are from socially, economically and educationally disadvantaged backgrounds (EcoSoc).

Most Read in Food & Entertainment

This Week This Month

Zomato shuts online ordering in 4 cities
Jan 11, 2016 4:25 pm IST

Baidu in talks with Zomato, Bookmyshow, BigBasket
Jan 13, 2016 8:11 am IST

Wal-Mart pulls plug on smallest store format, shuts 269 stores
Jan 16, 2016 8:41 am IST

India is one of the best markets for Starbucks: Howard Schultz
Jan 14, 2016 6:07 pm IST

Walmart to open 15 more stores in Andhra Pradesh
Jan 12, 2016 7:37 am IST