

Publication: FoodandHospitalityworld.com

Edition: Online

Date: 20th February, 2014

Headline: Red Fox Hotel wins National Tourism Award for best budget hotel

Link: <http://www.foodandhospitalityworld.com/latest-updates/2669-red-fox-hotel-wins-national-tourism-award-for-best-budget-hotel>

Red Fox Hotel wins National Tourism Award for best budget hotel

Red Fox Hotel, East Delhi has been honored with the National Tourism Award 2012-13 for the best hotel classified in two-star category. It operates four hotels in three cities – New Delhi (two hotels), Hyderabad and Jaipur. The National Tourism Awards recognise and honor stellar organisations and individuals who are championing, driving and supporting tourism in India. Nikhil Sharma, assistant vice president-operations, Red Fox Hotels accepted the award at a ceremony held at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi.

Speaking on the occasion, Patu Keswani, chairman and managing director, Lemon Tree Hotels said, "We are excited about being selected as the best hotel in the two-star category. We have focused our efforts on redefining the economy/budget hotels segment and on offering our consumers great, consistent quality at a very reasonable price. From the guest feedback we receive, we find this model is working well."

Located adjoining the commercial hub of Noida (Sectors 1 to 12, 16 and 25A) and in close proximity to the industrial hubs of Ghaziabad and Sahibabad, the Red Fox Hotel, East Delhi offers 94 smart rooms and suites, a multi-cuisine coffee shop – Clever Fox Café, a cyber kiosk, a meeting room.

FoodandHospitalityworld.com is an online portal has around 45,000 daily visitors.