

Lemon Tree Hotels launches its seventh property in Gujarat with Lemon Tree Resort, Somnath

The property features 52 well-appointed rooms, a restaurant, a boardroom, a fitness center, a recreational room, a swimming pool and other public areas.

7th August 2024: Lemon Tree Hotels Limited announces the opening of Lemon Tree Resort, Somnath. The property is being operated under the franchise division of Lemon Tree Hotels.

Lemon Tree Resort, Somnath is situated in Veraval, a pristine coastal stretch renowned for its serene ambience and breathtaking sunsets, offering a tranquil retreat for visitors. The resort is conveniently located just 5 minutes' walking distance from the Veraval beach and just 30 minutes away from the Somnath Temple. This comfortable resort features 52 well-appointed rooms and suites, Citrus Café – a multi-cuisine coffee shop and an expansive outdoor space to meet all discerning guests' event needs. For recreation, the resort offers a well-equipped fitness center, and a refreshing swimming pool.

Seeped in rich history and cultural heritage, Somnath stands as a testament to India's enduring spiritual legacy. Located in the western state of Gujarat, this ancient city is renowned for its illustrious Somnath Temple, dedicated to Lord Shiva. As one of the 12 Jyotirlingas, it holds immense religious significance for Hindus, drawing pilgrims from across the globe to pay homage and seek blessings. The city is also renowned for its rich history, with mentions dating back to ancient texts like the Puranas and Mahabharata. Somnath has witnessed numerous invasions and reconstructions over the centuries, symbolising resilience and devotion amidst tumultuous times.
