It is believed that Arjuna built and dedicated the temple to Goddess Durga.
- Undavalli Caves – Around 8 kilometers from Vijayawada, the Undavalli Caves go back to the seventh century BC and are a great representation of rock-cut engineering. The caverns are cut out of sandstone on a slope, and formed out of a single granite block. While there are numerous caverns, the largest is the one that is well known for its immense stone monument of Lord Vishnu
- Kondapalli Fort – Situated in the core of the Kondapalli town, which is acclaimed for its wooden toys, the superb Kondapalli Fort is a tremendous attraction. The goliath defences of the post, made from granite, can be seen from a significant distance as you enter Kondapalli town. One of the most striking highlights of the stronghold is its passageway door, called Dargah Darwaza, which has been cut out of a solitary rock stone. Other remarkable highlights of the stronghold incorporate the Golconda Darwaza, the Dargah of Gareeb Saheeb and the Tanisha Mahal.
- Dhyana Buddha – The Dhyana Buddha is a sculpture of Gautama Buddha in a thoughtful stance, situated in Amaravathi of Andhra Pradesh, India.
