FACT SHEET

Red Fox Hotel, Morjim, Goa

Red Fox Hotel, Morjim (the erstwhile Turtle Beach Resort Morjim), is situated on the banks of the Chapora river estuary in North Goa. It is a short distance from Morjim beach, which is a haven for tourists and conservationists alike. A beautiful white sand beach, Morjim, is one of the only locations in India which is home to the protected nesting site of the endangered Olive Ridley Sea Turtle. Nesting season commences in September and ends in April, with sightings of the turtles coming in to nest as late as January.

The hotel welcomes you with its fresh bold interiors, as well as crisp and clean rooms, and delights you with its unbeatable value and reliable safety standards. Here, friendly smiles and a lively environment go hand in hand with professional service.

Morjim beach is connected to beaches like Ashvem, Mandrem and Arambol, creating a stunning expanse of white sand stretching into the horizon. On the opposite bank of the Chapora river, only a short motorable distance away is Vagator beach - a thriving entertainment hub. This beach is also the base for the famed Chapora fort, which has been the location for many popular film shoots. Guests can enjoy early morning boat trips along the river as well as evening visits to the fort for the spectacular sunsets.

The hotel is also within a short driving distance from some of North Goa's popular beaches, including Anjuna (with the famous Anjuna Wednesday Flea Market), Baga, Calangute and Candolim. It is just half an hour away from two of Goa's largest markets - the Mapusa Friday Market and the Arpora Saturday Night Bazaar - perfect for people who enjoy shopping and a swinging nightlife.

A hotel that is young at heart, Red Fox Hotel, Morjim lets you be yourself. It offers 111 smart rooms, including one executive suite; a multi-cuisine restaurant, Clever Fox Café, complemented by a bar, Topsy Fox.
