Lemon Tree Hotel, Gangtok

Introduction

Lemon Tree Hotel, Gangtok is set in the lap of the enchanting eastern Himalayan range, offering captivating views of the serene valley. Conveniently located just 10 minutes away from MG Marg, this refreshing hotel is designed in traditional Sikkimese style architecture, with stylish wood frontages, arched windows, and red and yellow sloping roofs.

Well connected to Darjeeling (98 kms), Kalimpong (77 kms) and Siliguri (114 kms), this stylish hotel makes for a holiday that is truly spellbinding.

An idyllic place of stay for both business and leisure travellers, the hotel is about 3 hours from Nathula Pass, on the Indo-Chinese border, and is in close proximity to Kanchenjunga National Park, the UNESCO World Heritage Site, home to the rare red panda, snow leopard, and the elusive musk deer.

The hotel is in close proximity to many noteworthy monasteries, temples and Gumphas that Gangtok preserves with pride. It also offers easy access to the many recreational activities that the city has to offer, be it a holy visit to the monasteries of Rumtek, Gunjang, and Ranka, a scenic drive to the sacred glacial Lake Tsomgo, an overnight trip to the serene Yumthang valley to catch the finest glimpses of Mt. Kanchenjunga, a skinning expedition to Lachungor, or a trek to Lachento to witness the annual yak race.

A vibrant lobby ushers you into 80 well-appointed rooms that help you unwind with their fresh and bright interiors, smart in-room amenities, refreshing services and close to home comfort. The hotel houses a multi-cuisine coffee shop – Citrus Café and a hip-recreation bar-Slounge. Designed to suit all experiences, it also seamlessly transforms into an impactful destination for corporate events, stay conferences and socials with over 5600 sq. of banqueting space that comprises of 2 large conference rooms, a pre-function area and a business center.

The hotel also offers a rejuvenating spa - Pema wellness, a well-equipped fitness center, and a refreshing swimming pool, to keep you feeling fresh-as-a-lemon.

Distance from:

- Bagdogra Airport 130 kms (4.5 hours by road & 35 minutes by helicopter*)
- New Jalpaiguri Railway Station 120 kms (approximately 4 hours)
- Siliguri City 114 kms (approximately 4 hours)

Please note: The Sikkim Tourism Development Corporation operates a helicopter service, daily from Bagdogra to Gangtok and vice versa. Entry Formalities

Indian Nationals must carry a valid Government of India identity card like Aadhar Card, Voter ID or Driving License at all times. Pan Cards are not accepted as valid documents of proof in Gangtok. Indian Nationals must obtain an Inner Line Permit to visit Nathula Pass and North Sikkim. Passes are subject to government approval.

Foreign Nationals must obtain Restricted Area Permit (RAP) from Sikkim Tourism Offices at Delhi, Kolkata, Siliguri, Rangpo and Melli on the strength of a valid Indian Visa. The total permissible duration of stay to the foreign tourist is 60 days. Initially, a 30-day duration permit is issued on production of photocopies of the passport and visa details, along with two passport photos. The permit can be further extended twice, for 15 days each. The extension of the permits can be obtained from Foreigners Registration Office at Gangtok and the Office of the Superintendent of Police in the North, West and South Districts. Foreign Nationals are restricted to enter North Sikkim and Nathula Pass.

For trekking in the interior region of the State, the Tourism & Civil Aviation department issues a Protected Area Permit (PAP) at Gangtok, which is available for groups consisting of two or more foreigners, subject to the condition that the trekking programme is arranged through a registered travel agency.
