

HOTELS

A place to find solace

Away from the noise of Delhi, Lemon Tree Hotels offers you a place to calm, relax and enjoy your weekend.

Text: Zaheeb Ajmal

You are in Delhi and you don't like to travel, you are tired of your daily routine. You are looking for a comfort of home away from home. Then you should definitely opt for Lemon Tree Hotels. I had the pleasure of visiting the property in the month of Ramadan, in which people had to abstain from food and drinks from dawn to dusk and I was bowled by the hospitality of the hotel to make me feel comfortable.

Located four kilometres away, Lemon Tree Premier offers a wide range of upscale accommodation. The hotel is fully equipped with business centre, meeting room and multi-cuisine coffee shop. Once you enter your room, the bed make you feel sink in and take you to your sweet dreams.

The entire property is enabled with a Wi-fi facility for all your internet needs. Citrus Café, a 24X7 multi cuisine coffee shop, which offers an eclectic all day dining menu including Indian, European, American and pan-Asian cuisine. The property also has rejuvenating spa-Fresco, where travellers can avail the facility of foot spa to head spa. The soothing music in Fresco will drift you to a sound sleep. Lemon Tree Premier also offers a Women's Wing and specially designed room for the differently abled. If one is feeling bore then you should head to Slounge, enabled with a PlayStation, enjoy a game of chess or shoot pool as you listen to music and sip the drink of your choice. If you are tired after a day outing and want to have a something different for dinner then Republic of Noodles will meet your aspiration. The restaurant is decorated in a Bali-like decor with splashes of warm colour, subdued lighting and lots of bamboo and plants. The must tries at the restaurant include Giant Goan Chilli stuffed with Thai Chicken Kraprao, Thai Style Drunken Prawns, Western Sumatran Lamb Curry and Laotian Curry of Long Beans and Shitake. The menu at the restaurant offer a large variety of dishes from, The thing which makes their food stand apart are the signature hot sauces and authentic accompaniments that are created in-house kitchen. In the morning, when you are not interested in taking bath in a traditional way then you can swim your way in the swimming pool.

The property which was launched six months ago has 280 deluxe rooms and 3 suites available for frequent travellers. Lemon Tree Hotel, a business class hotel often witness a large number of airline crew due to its proximity to both International and Domestic airports of Delhi. Lemon Tree Premier pampers the style conscious and upbeat traveler with its personalised services, premium in-room amenities, restaurants and fun experiences.

The third biggest hotel chain in India has also launched Red Fox Hotel, which will suit your budget if you are not willing to spend much on your accommodation. The hotel has 207 smartly designed room with WiFi facility. Every room is equipped with mini fridge. The hotel has a 24X7 hotel, Clever Fox cafe which serves a selection of Indian, regional and continental cuisine. Here guests can relax and enjoy a complete meal, nibble on a snack, or just unwind with a magazine over a cup of freshly brewed coffee, in the lounge section. The hotel is also equipped with a fitness center.

