

News monitored for: Lemon Tree Hotels

After an hour of long drive, we reached to Lemon Tree Hotels at Tarudhan Valley, Manesar. If you are looking for a getaway to escape the daily hustle-bustle of life, head out for a weekend of sheer indolence at a sprawling new resort set amidst the Aravalli hills.

Carnation Hotels, the hotel management joint venture partner of Lemon Tree Hotels has taken over the management of the resort, developed and owned by the group Silverglades. The management agreement was signed by Rattan Keswani, deputy managing director of the company and chairman of Carnation Hotels Private Limited, and Anubhav Jain, director of group, Silverglades.

According to Keshwani, "The resort is mere 40-minutes drive from the Ambience Mall and 25-minutes from IFFCO Chowk. So it is not so far from the city. And if people are coming from Noida and

On top of the game

The recently opened Tarudhan Valley Golf Resort is the latest addition at the Lemontree Hotel. A MISHRA checks out the 72-acre sprawling property

Ghaziabad, then they will take almost two hours to reach here."

Designed to suit all experiences, this landscaped getaway offers 70 contemporary well appointed rooms including 18 studio apartments that offer an awe-inspiring view of the golf course. Together with a club house, the resort comprises of a themed bar and restaurant, a rejuvenating spa, an invigorating fitness center, an archery range, a billiards room, kids zone and a play area; it also offers numerous games courts and outdoor activities along with a lap-size swimming pool. "We have something in store for everyone. Like we have spa for ladies, playing spaces for kids and golf course for men," said Keshwani.

This beautiful and sprawling retreat spread around 72 acres, envelopes a nine-hole golf course designed by Graham Cooke, one of the most respected golf course architects in North America, and Canada's legendary amateur player.

The resort hotel also has an exclusive banquets arena that comprises of three large conference rooms and manicured gardens to host a variety of events, destination weddings and conferences.