A dining getaway at the Lemon Tree Hotel, Goa, the Republic of Noodles offers a memorable dining experience merging together the scrumptiously authentic delicacies of South East Asia.

Boasting of an indoor-outdoor setting in a mystic forest-like ambiance, the Republic of Noodles at the Lemon Tree provides a dining experience like none other. Transpiring you through a savoury escapade across the streets of Thailand, Vietnam, Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia and Burma, the restaurant’s exotic location in the heart of Goa transforms regular dining into a global getaway.

Exotic authentic fare
Picture a setting surrounded by plants on all sides with fountains filling the space for the visual treat. There are vintage mementos and antiques and artifacts from the various countries from which the restaurant derives its cuisine. Providing a platform for innovation and ingenuity, the quirky fixtures and lighting used enhance your dining rendezvous.

Exotic and authentic dishes cooked with the freshest ingredients and served in a beautiful environment promise you the perfect symphony of South East Asia. The award-winning restaurant has branches in Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Pune and Aurangabad.

Incidentally, the word Republic is derived from a Latin phrase 'res publica' translated as 'a public affair'. The various offerings on the menu spice up your salivary glands and Successfully commemorate the relationship between the noodles and authentic herbs and spices.

Start your meal with sizzling appetizers like Tandoori Chilli Prawns, Barbeque Grilled Spring Rolls with Orange Chutney. For the hungry souls, the must-haves include Pot Roasted Spare Ribs with Honey Glaze and Wok Flessted Thai Garlic Pepper
Go Now is a travel and hospitality monthly magazine aimed at the Indian traveller as the primary reader. It reaches out to corporate captains in their capacity as upmarket readers with a circulation of around 40,000.