Lemon Tree Premier, Dwarka

On the sacred lands of “Lord Krishna’s kingdom” and within the historic city of Dwarka, stands an aesthetically designed hotel, Lemon Tree Premier, Dwarka. This holy city is among one of the ‘Char Dhams’, which are the four widely revered Hindu pilgrimage sites in India, and is known for its renowned Dwarkadhish Temple, mythological legends and the marine excavations. The property is strategically situated adjacent to the Iskon gate, which is just a kilometre from the magnificent Temple.

The city holds ancient significance, and is mentioned in the prehistoric epic period of the Mahabharata. As the legend goes, it is said that Lord Krishna settled here after defeating his maternal uncle Kansa at Mathura. Lord Krishna prayed to ‘Samudradeva’ – the God of the Ocean, to provide him land for his kingdom, and Samudradeva accepted his prayer, and granted him the beautiful land of Dwarka, where Vishwakarma, the gods’ architect, built the city for Lord Krishna.

The original temple dedicated to Lord Krishna is widely believed to have been built by Vajranabha, his great grandson, on the banks of the Gomti river around 2,500 years ago, but was destroyed by ruler Mahmud Begada and subsequently, the Dwarkadhish Temple was rebuilt in the 16th century.

This mysterious city sits at the confluence of River Gomati and the Arabian Sea. Here, the Arabian Sea is known to have archived the city’s ancient secrets, which have been unearthed over time. Having lived through multiple eras, starting from the Gupta period until the British Raj, and then as a part of Independent India, Dwarka has been an enigmatic land of story tellers, riddles, disciples and purity. This city is most importantly known for the famous Dwarkadhish Temple, also called the Jagat Mandir, which is devoted to the “King of Dwarka - Lord Krishna”.

The hotel features a bright and inviting lobby, with a tastefully designed reception, which showcases a touch of the city’s heritage in its artefacts and stained glass art. The hotel features 109 well-appointed rooms and suites, which combine understated elegance and old world charm with modern amenities and facilities. Designed for the comfort of every traveller, most of the plush and comfortable rooms and suites offer a majestic view of the Dwarkadhish Temple.

The hotel features an all-vegetarian multi-cuisine coffee shop – Citrus Café – as well as expansive banquet spaces and conference facilities, including large conference rooms, a boardroom and a fully equipped business center. For recreation, the hotel has a rejuvenating spa – Fresco – a well-equipped fitness center, a recreation room–Refresh, and a beautiful swimming pool that promises to keep you feeling fresh and vibrant.
