

Lemon Tree Premier, Delhi Airport Celebrates Being Asian

Lemon Tree Premier, Delhi Airport, the flagship & Upscale hotel of the Lemon Tree group, India's fastest growing chain of upscale business and leisure hotels, organized a fortnight long food promotion at its celebrated pan-Asian restaurant- Republic of Noodles, at the Lemon Tree Premier, Delhi Airport.

Republic of Noodles, known for its Southeast Asian cuisine, served a medley of flavours from Thailand, Vietnam, Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia and Burma, prepared by Regional Chef Vasu Venkat Reddy and his team under the able supervision of Corporate Chef -Rajeev Janveja.

Delighted by the heightened activity and success of the event, Chef Janveja, said, "This has been the maiden food promotion event for this restaurant at Delhi. It is heartening to see the warm response we have received from food-lovers from different walks of life. Republic of Noodles brings a completely new level of the pan-Asian dining experience to Delhi and we look forward to welcoming food enthusiasts on this exotic journey across South East Asia."

The restaurant had been bustling with people and activities. The special menu designed for this food promotion boasted of the most interesting selections of South East Asian cuisine.

It innovatively blend the many flavours and textures of this region. Beautifully presented dishes, made from the highest quality ingredients and accompanied by the restaurants' signature hot sauces set everyone's taste buds on fire. Guests were seeing cooling off with the extensive selection of spirits and wines...and made it a perfect evening out.
