Cradled amidst the hills of Aravalis, surrounded by fields of maize and mustard, rests a beautiful sprawling resort managed by Lemon Tree Hotels, adjacent to an international standard golf course, just outside Delhi. With picturesque greens and serene waterbodies, this visually stunning and breathtaking retreat exudes an old-world charm. Spread around 72 acres, it envelops a standard 9-hole golf course designed by Graham Cooke, one of the most respected golf course architects in North America and Canada.
