Local Sightseeing

The property can organise visits to many tourist destinations, including:

Lalbagh Botanical Garden – Lalbagh, in south Bengaluru, organises two flower shows every year and has over 1,000 species of plants including many trees that are more than a hundred years old. With an intricate watering system for irrigation, this garden is aesthetically designed, with lawns, flowerbeds, lotus pools and fountains.

Iskcon Temple - One of the largest Krishna temples in the world, it distributes free Sri Krishna prasadam to all visitors during the darshana hours. During the arati and kirtan, devotees can be seen dancing to the rhythm of "Hare Krishna Hare Rama".

Bengaluru Palace - A royal palace that was owned by the Rev. John Garrett, the first principal of the Central High School in Bengaluru, is now famous as Central College. Many international artists have performed on its grounds. But now, only some private companies controlled by the royal family hold weddings on the grounds.

HAL Aerospace Museum - India's first aerospace museum is at the Hindustan Aeronautics Limited premises, in Bengaluru. The Museum is part of the HAL Heritage Centre and Aero Space Museum and showcases the growth of the Indian Aviation Industry and HA; for six decades. The museum displays various aircraft and helicopters, Aircraft engine models, Flight simulators, a mock Air Traffic Control Tower and an exhibit of Indian Aviation History. The Museum is maintained by HAL (one of Asia's largest Aerospace companies).

National Gallery of Modern Art – This art gallery showcases modern Indian art and houses paintings by Raja Ravi Verma, Jamini Roy, Amrita Sher-Gil, Rabindranath Tagore and a large number of modern and contemporary artists. Equipped with an auditorium, a public art reference library, a cafeteria, and a museum shop cum facilitation block. The gallery organises and hosts talks on art and culture by speakers, seminars, film screenings as well as workshops and guided walks throughout the year.
