Lemon Tree Hotel, Rishikesh

Introduction

Located in Tapovan, a popular and spiritually-significant area in Rishikesh, Lemon Tree Hotel, Rishikesh is an ideal destination for leisure travellers. Tapovan embraces yoga ashrams, temples, and natural surroundings, making it an ideal place for those seeking solitude and meditation enthusiasts visiting Rishikesh to deepen their practice and connect with nature.

In addition to the rich flora and fauna, there are thrilling adventure activities like river rafting, kayaking, rappelling, canoeing, mountain biking etc., the option of attending the guided Ganga Aarti at Parmarth Niketan and Triveni Ghat, and much more – all conveniently located in the vicinity of the hotel. It is also a short drive from the famed Neelkanth Mahadev Temple, called so as it is the place Shiva consumed poison that originated from the sea that made his throat turn blue (neelkanth = blue throat). The temple is one of the most revered holy shrines dedicated to Lord Shiva and is a prominent pilgrimage site.

This refreshingly different hotel brings the outdoors in and delights guests with its fresh vibrant interiors, spirited environment and a whiff of the signature lemon fragrance. Warm and friendly service that brings close-to-home comfort complimenting the touch of the city's tranquillity atmosphere that goes the extra mile.

The hotel offers 126 well-appointed rooms and suites, some of them overlooking mountains, with large windows that bring the outdoors in. These comfortable rooms are complemented by Citrus Café – the bright and inviting coffee shop; Slounge – A Terrace Bar and Pool Bar & Grill (to be opened in the second phase) overlooking the mountains; Fresco – the rejuvenating spa, the quintessence of rest and recreation; a fully equipped fitness center and a refreshing swimming pool to keep you feeling as-fresh-as-a-lemon. It also features a sprawling garden (to be opened in the second phase) and the Tangerine Grand, a banquet hall with a connecting pre-function area to meet the business and event requirements of discerning guests.

Local Sightseeing

The property can organise visits to many tourist destinations, including:

Triveni Ghat: Located on the banks of the holy Ganges River, it holds great significance in Hinduism. It is considered sacred because it is believed to be the confluence of three holy rivers – Ganges, Yamuna and Saraswati. Taking a dip in the water at Triveni Ghat is believed to purify the soul. The main attraction of the ghat is the evening Ganga Aarti. Every evening, as the sun sets, the ghat comes alive with a vibrant and spiritually charged ceremony. Devotees and tourists gather to witness the ritual, where lamps and incense are offered to the river, and hymns and prayers are chanted making a tranquil experience.

Parmarth Niketan Ashram: It is one of the prominent and well-known ashrams in Rishikesh. Situated on the banks of the holy Ganges River which holds great significance as a spiritual and cultural center.

Laxman Jhula: Located across the Ganges River, this suspension bridge offers scenic views of the Ganges, the surrounding hills, and the spiritual atmosphere of Rishikesh. The vicinity around the bridge is lined with restaurants and guesthouses.

Ram Jhula: Ram Jhula, another iconic suspension bridge, is a popular tourist and pilgrimage spot with its own historical and religious significance. Visitors come here to soak in the serene and spiritual atmosphere and enjoy the scenic beauty of the Ganges River and the surrounding hills.

Neer Gaddu Waterfall: Located on the Rishikesh-Badrinath highway, this prominent waterfall is about 5 kms from Lakshman Jhula waterfall. It is a popular attraction that offers a refreshing and picturesque view.

Patna Waterfall: Situated at a distance of 6.5 kms from Laxman Jhula at Neelkanth Road, the waterfall is well-known for the limestone caves located next to it. Tourists have to trek for 1 km into the Rajaji National Park in order to reach the waterfall.
