

Red Fox by Lemon Tree Hotels, Neelkanth

Introduction

Perched on a picturesque hilltop, Red Fox by Lemon Tree Hotels, Neelkanth is 26 kms from Rishikesh, cradled in the valleys of Manikoot, Brahmakoot, and Vishnukoot. The proximity of only 150 mtr. to the revered Neelkanth Mahadev Temple significantly enhances its allure.

A significant Hindu pilgrimage site, particularly during Maha Shivratri, the temple stands at the spot where Lord Shiva, as per legend, consumed a potent poison to rescue creation. Neelkanth, translating to 'Blue Throat,' commemorates this event where Shiva's neck turned blue as he confined the poison in his throat. This revered location is cloaked in dense forests and robust mountain ranges of Nar-Narayan, near the confluence of rivers Pankaja and Madhumati. Offering an unparalleled experience, many rooms at the hotel provide a splendid view of the temple. Interiors characterized by freshness and crispness greet guests at Red Fox by Lemon Tree Hotels, Neelkanth, accompanied by impeccably clean rooms. A blend of friendly smiles, a welcoming atmosphere, and professional service embody the hotel's ethos of being unbeatably cool and making guests feel at home. The hotel has 84 elegantly appointed rooms and suites, establishing it as a preferred destination for leisure and pilgrim travelers.

Imbued with the tranquility of its surroundings, the hotel is about an hour's drive from Rishikesh, a journey that unfolds the rich flora and fauna of the region. An array of exhilarating experiences await, including river rafting, kayaking, rappelling, canoeing, mountain biking, quad biking, rock climbing, and archery. Trekking, exploration of Neer Gaddu waterfalls and Patna waterfalls, and participation in the Ganga Aarti at Parmath Niketan and Triveni Ghat further enrich the guests' stay at the Red Fox by Lemon Tree Hotels, Neelkanth.
