Local Sightseeing

The property can organise visits to many tourist destinations, including:

Mani Mandir: A stunning temple located in Morbi, Gujarat, built in the late 19th century by Maharaja Waghji Thakor. Set on the Machhu Riverbank, it is part of the Darbar Gadh royal complex and showcases exquisite Rajput and European architectural influences. The temple is known for its intricate stone carvings, beautifully sculpted columns, and spiritual ambiance, making it a notable heritage and cultural landmark in Morbi.

Green Tower: This is a prominent clock tower and historical landmark located in the heart of the city. Built during the rule of the Jadeja dynasty, it reflects a blend of colonial and local architectural styles. The tower is named after its distinctive green color and serves as a symbol of Morbi's royal past and urban heritage. It remains a popular spot for locals and tourists exploring the city's historic charm.

Wellington Secretariat: It is a majestic heritage building constructed during the British era, named after Lord Wellington, the then Governor of Bombay. Designed in a European architectural style with domes, arches, and grand corridors, it once served as the administrative headquarters for the princely state of Morbi. Today, it stands as a symbol of the city's colonial past and architectural grandeur.
