Local Sightseeing

The property can organise visits to many tourist destinations, including:

Mindrolling Monastery

Popularly known as Tibetan Buddhist Temple Complex, it is one of the largest Buddhist learning centres in India. It was constructed in 1676 by Rigzin Tendak Lingpa. The statues of Buddha and Guru Padmasambhava tower over the complex, which is dedicated to the research of Tibetan lunar calendar, Buddhist scriptures, Tibetan medicine, astronomy, and calligraphy. Over 300 monks study Buddhist scriptures here.

Gucchu Pani

Robber's Cave or Guccchu Pani is a natural limestone formation. According to legends, the cave is a holy abode of Lord Shiva. Surrounded by high hills and lush greenery, a sparkling, cold spring water inside creates a mysterious atmosphere. There are some gorgeous waterfalls inside. It is the perfect destination for picnic lovers, couples, and trekkers.

Tapkeshwar Mahadev Temple

The Tapkeshwar Mahadev Temple is dedicated to Lord Shiva. It is believed that the son of Guru Dronacharya, Ashwathma, was born here. The temple is located in a cave and you can see a unique blend of natural and manmade architecture.

Moreover, the gorgeous Tons River beside the temple and lofty mountains heighten the beauty of this place. The key attraction is the naturally formed Shiva Lingam.

Sahastradhara

Translated as “the thousand fold springs”, it is one of the most popular attractions in Dehradun. The water is famous for containing medicinal properties as it is rich in sulphur.

Forest Research Institute

This educational institute, spread over 450 hectares of land, is built in the Greco-Roman and Colonial architectural style. It was originally founded in 1878 by a German-British botanist and forestry academic, Dietrich Brandis. It is dedicated to researching various animals, plants and the climate.
